

TENTH YEAR.

A BLOW AT GOEBEL.

Chairman Dunlap's Decision Sustained by the Democratic State Central Committee.

Democratic Clubnatorial Campaign Opening Up in Hot Shape.

Lexington, Ky., January 10.—The Democratic State Central Committee to-day, by a vote of seven to six, sustained Chairman Dunlap's decision in removing Mr. C. W. Huggins and Wallace A. McKay, who were chairmen respectively of the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Legislative District Democratic Committees of Louisville.

Mr. Dunlap is spoken of as the "figure of the hour." He is the man who dared defy the Goebel Machine, and now it seems that a large part of the Democracy of the State, tired of the gang rule and made-to-order slates, is lining up at his back.

As a result of the committee's action, a conclusion was quickly reached by nearly every politician that the result of the committee's action would be the early announcement of ex-Gov. John Young Brown for the Democratic nomination for Governor. It is said that in this event, which is regarded as almost certain, another Western Kentucky candidate will also announce, making the race between Gov. Brown, Senator Goebel, Mr. Hardin, Capt. W. J. Stone and a fifth person. This would split the vote until it would be impossible to make any estimates as to the outcome. Senator Goebel held a conference last night at Frankfort with his friends from various parts of the State, and it is said that he will very soon begin an active canvass of the entire State. Mr. Hardin has already begun a vigorous campaign, and before the end of a fortnight the fight will be on in earnest, probably with Gov. Brown in by that time.

The most sensational feature of the meeting was the charge made in open meeting that the Louisville Dispatch had sold out to John Whalen, who has secured control of the board of directors, and a frank confession by President Allen R. Carter that the paper had sold out its influence on the Louisville Ripper Bill in the last Legislature for the city printing.

Pioneer Deer Slayer.

The sight of a deer sent to Mr. John B. Atkinson by Capt. T. L. Lee, of Memphis, last week, has induced Uncle Oscar Stevens to break silence as to some of his early deer hunting in Hopkins county where present old institutions were young and the forest and cane brake had not given over to farming operations nor yielded up their hidden treasures to the pioneer miners, whose operations have since turned into gold the secrets of those days. Before Earlinton was or ever a pick had laid bare the treasure of black diamonds hidden here, the home of a pioneer, Mr. Crutfield Young, stood on the site now occupied by the residence of Mr. John B. Atkinson, president of the pioneer coal company in Hopkins county, the St. Bernard. A dense cane brake grew where now are cultivated the many native trees of the modern Arboretum, the first collection of like character in Kentucky. Uncle Oscar was a successful hunter in those days and his gun brought down many a fine buck.

Once he came, in company with another early settler now many years dead, Uncle Jack Woolfolk, to the home of Mr. Young. In the early morning they got their guns ready for the hunt. Mrs. Young called to them not to stray to go with him to a Bleeker-street hotel. When she was in bed he gave her whisky believed to have been drugged. Then Price turned on the unlighted gas jet. There Uncle Oscar killed two fine deer and they returned to the house in time for breakfast, having been gone only about an hour. And now rests the thriving and chief mining town of Kentucky—Earlington—on the site of Uncle Oscar's former solitary deer stalks.

Carrom Club.

A Carrom Club was organized by a number of Earlinton people at the residence of Dr. E. A. Chatten on Monday evening. Some twenty members were enrolled at the initial meeting. The game was practically new to most of those present but all were pleased and meetings of the club promise to be very interesting and attractive. The prize feature was voted upon. There will be no prizes given and the game will be enjoyed on its own merits. Among the members are Dr. and Mrs. Chatten; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McGary; Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Moore; Mrs. J. E. Kemp; Misses Agnes and Sue Burr; Bessie Allen; Minnie Bourland; Lucy Crenshaw; Annie Moore; Celeste Moore; Messrs. Bryan Hoppper, Howard White, E. B. Bourland, Ed. Rule.

Miss Mary Rash, of Cadiz, visited relatives here last Sunday.

REFRIGERATED BEEF.

Leut.-Col. Smith, of the Subsistence Department, Says It was Abundant and Wholesome.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Commissary-General Egan, of the army, has made public a letter from Lieut.-Col. A. L. Smith, of the subsistence department, touching the use of refrigerated beef furnished to troops at Porto Rico from that island at Ponce. In this letter Col. Smith says in part: "Officers who favored Refrigerated Beef. 'Among others to whom the refrigerated beef was issued, I remember the following officers as having spoken of the meat with approval: Lieut. Col. the native beef: Maj. H. P. Birmingham, surgeon of the general hospital; Capt. Irvine, Eleventh infantry, who was acting as commissary for the steamer Panama (I think), loaded with convalescents en route to the United States; Capt. W. P. Evans, commanding battalion Nineteenth infantry; Capt. Hoppin, Second cavalry, commanding cavalry squadron."

There were no complaints made for the beef on shore. It was to be up-loaded by lighters and thrown on the floor of the commissary storehouse until the troops called for it in open wagons. It was, therefore, subjected to the worst possible usage in handling. It was frequently 12 to 15 hours on the vessel before being issued. One issue to Capt. Hoppin was over 24 hours in the storehouse. Notwithstanding this the meat was in good condition, except pieces which had been exposed to the sun, but could be trimmed off with some loss.

"I inspected the refrigerated beef each morning before it was issued, and know that it was in good condition, except as stated above. Cases where it was rejected were, I think, due to the prejudice arising from the appearance when out of the refrigerator for a short time to the fact that it was known the beef had been a long time on the vessel in Porto Rican waters."

"The officers without exception to whom I spoke commended the use of the native beef, which had to be consumed the same day it was slaughtered."

Col. Smith also has the following to say about rationals for the soldiers: "Complete Rations Almost Always Available. 'I further beg to call your attention to the fact that with the exception of soap and candles for two or three days there was never a time after my arrival when the commissary house at Ponce could not issue the complete ration, fresh vegetables not included. These spoiled so rapidly that it was deemed best to consume the ration of them for several weeks, and give out a frank confession by President Allen R. Carter that the paper had sold out its influence on the Louisville Ripper Bill in the last Legislature for the city printing."

"I further state that about 10 a. m. October 10, on taking leave of Gen. Henry, commanding United States troops at Ponce, he requested me, among other things, to say to the honorable secretary of war on my arrival in Washington, that the rations furnished to the troops in Porto Rico were abundant in quantity and excellent in quality."

NOVEL AND HORRIBLE.

An Ex-Convict Attempts Murder and Suicide by Asphyxiation. A Time-ly Rescue.

New York, Jan. 7.—Richard Price, a former convict, yesterday attempted to murder his mistress and commit suicide in a somewhat novel and horrible way. The woman was Mrs. Hanson, with whom until lately, Price lived for six years. They separated a month ago on account of Price's alleged cruelty. Thursday night they met, and Price compelled the woman to go with him to a Bleeker-street hotel. When she was in bed he gave her whisky believed to have been drugged. Then Price turned on the unlighted gas jet. There Uncle Oscar killed two fine deer and they returned to the house in time for breakfast, having been gone only about an hour. And now rests the thriving and chief mining town of Kentucky—Earlington—on the site of Uncle Oscar's former solitary deer stalks.

OUR TRADE IN THE ORIENT.

Consul-General Goodnow, of Shanghai, Recommends an American-Chinese Exposition.

THIS IS THE TIME TO PUSH THE TRADE.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Consul-General Goodnow, of Shanghai, writes to a correspondent in New York strongly recommending an American-Chinese exposition in Shanghai. He says that practically all foreign goods, except those of the United States, go through Shanghai, and an exposition there will reach the trade of the Yangtze valley and the north. He says that the customs reports show that the import trade of the United States has increased at the expense of imports from other nations. We are nearer the Chinese market, freights are less, and the feeling of the Chinese is more friendly to Americans than to any other nationality.

THIS IS THE TIME. This is the time, he says, to push the trade which is rapidly developing, and if not captured by the United States, now, will be lost for many years to come. He advises that the permanent exposition be located in the American settlement in connection with the consulate-general, and that its national character should be strongly emphasized. He points out that American trade in the region has so far been pushed by halfhearted efforts, and that the agents of many of the American houses attempting to do business there are Germans and Englishmen, who have a strong national feeling, and are not inclined to push American goods at the expense of theirs.

He points out that the local agent is the man with whom the Chinese merchants come in contact, and knowing him to be reliable, they depend upon his advice, and accept his recommendation. He says that the Chinese trade demands special widths which American manufacturers do not deem it worth while to supply, whereas German and English firms, by simple attention to this detail, can control a large and important market.

MUST LEARN CHINESE METHODS. The consul-general says further that American firms must acquaint themselves with Chinese methods of doing business, and with the superstitions and prejudices of the Chinese, as well as their trade and banking laws. The colors of labels, the form in which goods are put up, and many other seemingly immaterial matters have a decided effect upon oriental sales. In cotton goods, for instance, the Chinese trade demands special widths which American manufacturers do not deem it worth while to supply, whereas German and English firms, by simple attention to this detail, can control a large and important market.

THE EAST A VAST MARKET. American inventions, such as bicycles, phonographs and cameras, are being rapidly introduced in many localities, but it is first necessary to exhibit samples, as such goods can not be sold upon description. Consul Goodnow urges strongly that this is the time for American manufacturers in every line to put their own men on the ground, and acquaint themselves thoroughly with oriental trade conditions, for the east promises a vast and easily obtainable market now which soon will be usurped by other nations if we do not push our natural advantages there at the present time.

AN AMERICAN PROTEST.

Minister Conger, Acting Under Instructions From Washington, Protests Against Exclusive Concessions at Shanghai.

Peking, Jan. 7.—The United States minister here, E. H. Conger, acting under instructions from Washington, vigorously protested Thursday against the extension of the French or any other power's exclusive concession at Shanghai, but he urged the termination of the existing settlement on an international basis.

Soldier Boys Hurt.

Columbus, O., Jan. 7.—Two hundred members of the Fourth Ohio volunteer, gathered here for muster out, were hurled from their improvised beds at the Auditorium at an early hour, and 23 were injured, quite a number being seriously hurt, although no fatalities are expected. In order to accommodate the men temporary double-decked bunks had been constructed out of tent floors and scantlings, and under the weight of the sleeping soldiers the structure toppled over. All the injured were Second battalion men.

Its Influence on Cuban Insurgents is Said to be Noticeable.

A FRIGHTFUL COLLISION.

Thirteen Persons Killed Outright and Twenty-Five Injured on the Lehigh Valley.

ACCIDENT DUE TO A FREIGHT WRECK.

The East-Bound Train was Blocked—There was a Blunder in Train Dispatchers' Orders, and the Train Met at a Sharp Curve—An Eyewitness' Version of the Accident.

New York, Jan. 10.—By a head-on collision between two passenger trains on the Lehigh Valley railroad at West Dunellen, N. J., at 12:47 p. m. yesterday, 13 persons were killed and over 25 were injured.

West Dunellen is three miles from Bound Brook and about thirty miles from New York city. At the spot where the disaster occurred there is a sharp curve in the Lehigh Valley tracks and a steep cutting, but the accident was due in the first place to some terrible mistake in train orders and in the second place to another accident that occurred at Bound Brook earlier in the day.

One of the Worst Collisions in Recent Years.

The scenes which accompanied the collision, the suffering of the injured and the panic that reigned among the 400 passengers were well-nigh indescribable. The bloodstained wreck of tangled and twisted iron and wood that was still on the railroad tracks last night bore witness to the truth of the general verdict of the railroad men that this was one of the worst collisions in recent years.

Why Accidents are Possible.

A head-on collision on a double track road was made possible only by a freight wreck which occurred at Bound Brook at six o'clock yesterday morning, when the axle of a freight car broke, and nine cars were piled on top of each other. This completely blocked the east-bound track, and all through the morning Lehigh Valley trains bound for New York switched from their own track to the west-bound track, going over these rails on what seemed a desperate venture. A distance of six miles, and changing at the latter place back to their right side of the road.

Put on Steam and Headed Around the Curve.

Just before reaching West Dunellen, Engineer Rick slowed his train down, because he stopped for passengers if the train, threw up his arms and waved them, as if to say there were no passengers, so the local put on steam and headed round the curve, going at about 25 miles an hour. There were only four passengers on the local. Shrieking Whistles and Brakes Grinding Sparks from the Wheels.

In the cab of the excursion train was James Prendergast, the engineer, with his fireman, George Cheshire. They saw the local as it started on the curve. With shrieking whistle and brakes grinding sparks from the wheels, the excursion train bore down to what seemed certain destruction.

The passengers, alarmed at the continued whistle, opened the windows, mothers snatched their children in their arms, men started from their seats, but before they had time to find what was the matter they were hurled headlong, knocked senseless and many killed outright.

Story of an Eyewitness.

A few minutes before the trains crashed, George Weidman, of Dunellen, had telegraphed his cousin, Charles Hudlow, to get a wagon to take him to the crossing a few yards from where the engines met.

"I saw them coming," he said, "the east-bound whistling for me and the local coming around the corner. I saw the engineer of the local saw what he was up against. People were sticking their heads out of the windows. The trains banged into each other, and the local climbed over the other as if it was going right on. Then she turned over and came down on her smokestack. Then the other passengers and trainmen came running up."

FATAL FREIGHT WRECK.

Two Engineers and One Fireman Killed—Should Have Side-Track, But Failed to Do So.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Jan. 11.—Two freight trains on the Rock Island road collided about five miles east of this city at an early hour yesterday morning, resulting in the instant death of Engineer J. W. Taylor before Fire saw the wreck, and the death of Fireman John Stone of the extra freight, and Engineer John Caldwell of the regular freight. All the killed resided at Valley Junction. The extra should have side-tracked for the regular, but for some unknown reason failed to do so. The wreck delayed the Rock Island's fast train two hours, it being finally compelled to come in over the Milwaukee track from Neola.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 1899.

JUDGE TARVIN, of Covington, has wined and dined Candidate Warrior Jennings Bryan.

COLLECTOR SAPP, of Louisville, says he is ready to meet investigation of the administration of his office.

EX-GOV. JOHN YOUNG BROWN is still considered a probable candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor. A friend of his says he will be announced in a few days.

CAPT. GUY B. SCOTT, a Louisville man who has the credit of having fired the shot from the forward gun of the Texas which killed eighty-six men on the Viscaya, is out of the service and will again make his home at Louisville. The Navy Department should not let such a crack shot get away.

CHAS. H. SWEENEY, who says he has "turned over a new leaf, renounced the Democratic party and all its works," has issued the number of the Greenville Tribune, a Republican paper, and promises to be good. The Bee extends the right hand of fellowship and trusts he will keep the faith and make his laudable promises good.

An extract from the Black Diamond reproduced in our "Down in the Mines" column today sets forth in interesting style the reasons for the great activity of the coal trade throughout the country during the present season. Many who are interested in the trade will be interested to read the article in question.

The Guthrie Courier has changed management and form. One wise and decent change made is the removal from its editorial columns of the big double-column portrait of an always candidate, a once nominee, a short-time ago warrior. While maintaining its importance as a local paper our contemporary concludes that it is not a national Democratic convention, and falls a little short of the power to select presidential candidates.

UNIONTOWN has passed an ordinance requiring all druggists to pay a tax of $250 and it is further stated that all druggists will be forced to take out whiskey license "as they will be compelled to pay the $250 license anyway." There's something dead up the branch. Either the white sheep in the flock of Uniontown druggists is lacking or the city dads don't propose to have to walk further than the nearest druggist when they are thirsty.

THE Evening Post rises to remark that "It is manifest that Mr. Hill and not Mr. Sommers is on the Goebel slate for Secretary of State, and its reason for reaching this conclusion is that the editor of the Elizabethtown News announces that that paper is no longer a Goebel organ.

Whatever the reason prompting Editor Sommers to a change of front it is a feather in his cap that he has turned his back upon Goebelism, as many another Democrat who looks to the future has wisely done before him.

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is against American control of the Philippines because there are some savages there who may not take to the ways of civilization and may be foolish enough, as some of them uncivilized children that they are doubtless will be, to run plump into the buzz-saw of Uncle Sam's army. Some of them may be killed. This would be deplorable, certainly, however few they might be or however benighted.

But if Mr. Cleveland is going to advise a shirking of national responsibility lest some such unpleasant episode arise, he, to be consistent, should propose a plank for the Democratic platform providing that all Americans except the original Red ones withdraw to some neighboring continent or take to the surf in order that the almost exterminatedaborigine might grow and multiply and possess the land and thus right the mighty wrong perpetrated by our forefathers.

Stay—Stop.

An Atlanta dispatch says that a stout corset stay saved the life of Mrs. Phillips, of Chicago, from a parlor rifle bullet. What blessed fortune! An argument has been found. Stays—stout stays—have a defense. This is even better than the snake-bite defense of the worm of the still. Great discoveries have been made by merest accident. The world moves and there is yet hope that excuse may be found for Chinese shoes.

Use Our Jail Birds.

The inmates of our county jails should be employed in improving our county roads. Their time could be use and their muscles developed thus for the great public good instead of their remaining in constant idleness in their cells, a dead expense to the county. Our laws provide that this may be done and the proper officials should take the proper steps to use this available labor constantly for the betterment of the miserable roads which prevail in the major part of the county.

Mr. Goebel Reckless.

Mr. William Goebel, the father of the renowned Bill Goebel Bill, has grown reckless and he don't care a double-blank domino who knows it. He'll just be blankety-blanked if he don't do as he blank pleases. He told a reporter for the Louisville Commercial the other day that he could "print anything he d—mned pleased about him." Ah, there's a high mucky-muck for you! Just wait until he gets the Democratic nomination—will he? Then it will just be a plain old case of "the public be d—mned."

Shall we Pay Poll Tax?

An interesting ruling has been made by County Judge I. A. Spalding, of Union County, which develops a new point with reference to taxation in Kentucky. He holds that unless delinquent tax-payers have property exceeding $250 no sale can be made to collect any kind of tax, not even poll-tax; that the $250 of personal property that is exempt under the law is absolutely exempt from all taxation. The decision makes work for the higher courts, and if Judge Spalding's ruling has good foundation it makes interesting reading for the public and the public treasury. If a man enjoy the right of suffrage it does seem that he ought to value that right sufficiently to pay a pittance per annum for the public support.

A Kingdom For an Issue.

The Courier-Journal recently correctly depicted the condition of the Democratic party—the party without an issue—when the brainy editor of that journal suggested a ticket "without a platform" for that party's next Presidential campaign.

The following more recent utterance of the same writer indicates how fruitless yet remains the quest for an issue:

Maybe Mr. Bryan, having concluded that there is not a presidency in the 16-10-1 issue, and being shrewd enough, let it be hoped, to discover that there is not a presidency in the anti-expansion issue, may flash a winning issue in the question whether the Twentieth century begins with the year 1900 or 1901.

In fact the strait with the Democrats is so desperate that there are those who seem almost ardently hoping for military reverses for our troops in some of the Philippines, in order that they may rise up and preach the gospel of peace for their own profit and prophecy dire vengeance of the Almighty upon the heads of those who have heard the voice of the people and mayhap the voice of God and are upholding this government in its belief in and acceptance of a national responsibility with its great duties and possible hazards.

What ghosts and skeletons would these see who look with such dread upon a possible battle with Filipinos, should they dare look back on the actions of their forefathers in the early days of this nation.

Mr. C. T. Martin, of Springfield, Tenn., who visited Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robinson during the past week, was years ago in charge of a carpenter force on the L. & N., and had a hand in the remodeling of the old Earlinton depot to its present attractive shape. (Oh, if he now only had the desire and permission to take it away as a relic!) Mr. Martin was investigating the Earlinton electric light plant, getting information that might be of value in the negotiations of his city for a new plant which they are about to install.

Highways which are rendered impassable by ordinary rains—and there are many of them—are not fit to be called roads.

HON. JOHN FELAND.

Death Claims the Distinguished Citizen and Jurist.

Long and Honorable Career is Ended—Bar Takes Action.

From the Kentucky New Era.

The announcement that Judge John Feland had succumbed to death shocked and surprised the city and threw a shadow of gloom over the community which the glad sunlight of the Sabbath morning could not dispel.

The place which the distinguished jurist held in the affections of his home people could not have been more eloquently expressed than in the faces of the people on the streets and in the churches when the news became known. It was hard to grasp the real purport of the announcement. It was difficult to realize that the form so lately seen in the active duties of a busy life was now still in death, and that the voice, which but a few days before had been heard in pleasant greeting was now silent forever. While Judge Feland was known to be very ill, and it was understood that the greatest apprehension was entertained by his physicians and family, the public was unprepared for the news of his death.

He had been confined to his bed less than a week. He contracted a deep cold, which in the rush of his professional duties was neglected. This developed into a most malignant attack of the grip and last Monday he was compelled to take his bed. On the following day he began to develop symptoms of erysipelas. It attacked his face and spread rapidly over his throat and chest. This dangerous complication of grip and erysipelas was accompanied by a very high fever and hours of delirium. Shortly before noon his condition grew alarmingly worse and his physicians were hastily summoned. Under the influence of stimulants he rallied and during the afternoon his condition indicated a marked change for the better and warranted hope that his robust constitution would triumph over the combination of maladies. But it was not to be. At an early hour Sunday morning there came a relapse and he sank rapidly until the end. At 7 o'clock the vital spark expired while the members of his family, heart broken, stood around his bed.

Judge Feland was born on the 23d day of December, 1837, in Barren county. While a mere boy, his father moved to Christian county and was for ten years postmaster of this city. He began the study of law in 1858 with the late Col. James F. Buckner. Shortly after being admitted to the bar, hostilities between the sections began and the young attorney enlisted as Quartermaster of the Third Kentucky Federal cavalry. He remained with his regiment until after the battle of Shiloh. He was then transferred to the Eighth cavalry, serving until 1863, when he returned to Hopkinsville. In the following year he formed a partnership with Gen. Benjamin A. Bristow, who later was Secretary of the Treasury under Grant. Later he was associated with Walter Evans.

He allied himself with the Republican party in early life and never ceased to be a factor in its councils and policy in this State. His political career was equally honorable with his professional, beginning in 1875 when he defeated Hon. James A. McKenzie for the Legislature. He was re-elected to the lower House in 1877 and 1879, and was Presidential elector for the State at large on the Republican ticket in 1876. In 1880 he was elected to the State Senate to fill the unexpired term of Hon. Austin Peay. In conjunction with Judge Joshua F. Bullitt he edited the New Code of practice which took effect January 1, 1877.

Upon the return of the Republican party to power with the Harrison administration he was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Second Kentucky district, with headquarters at Owensboro. At the expiration of his term he practiced his profession at Owensboro a year and then returned to Hopkinsville and resumed a lucrative practice.

Judge Feland was married on Feb. 12, 1863, to Miss Sallie Kennedy, daughter of S. W. Kennedy, of Todd county. Mrs. Feland and four children survive him. They are W. S. Feland, Deputy Revenue Collector; John Feland, Jr., of this city; Capt. Logan Feland, of the Volunteer army, and Mrs. John Gilmore, of Owensboro.

Judge Feland was a man of superior mental endowments and vast intellectual resources. He had been a student all his life. Not only had he pored over the principles and precedents of his profession, but he had gathered into his mental storehouse the gems of polite literature and results of scientific research.

With his wide range of information his genial nature and engaging personality he was a man whose society was instructive and widely sought. At the bar Judge Feland had few equals in this State. He fought for his clients with tenacity and contested every point with skill. He was a powerful and persistent man before a jury, and on the hustings in political meetings he was a dangerous antagonist.

He was a man of generous impulses and kind heart. His life was full of deeds of charity and kindnesses of the quiet, unostentatious sort. To the younger members of his profession he was ever generous, and his words often encouraged those who despaired in the struggle. By none will his loss be more deeply felt than those who were wont to seek his counsel in the technical details of practice.

Bar Takes Action.

At a meeting of the members of the Hopkinsville bar held at 9 o'clock this morning in the County Court room for the purpose of taking suitable action with reference to the death of Hon. John Feland, Judge J. I. Landes was elected chairman and Frank Rives secretary.

On motion the following resolution was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the members of this bar extend the remains of Hon. John Feland from his late residence to the Methodist church and attend in a body the funeral services there and the burial at Hopewell cemetery.

On motion the following members of the bar were appointed a committee to draw up and present resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the bar in their loss and of sympathy to the bereaved family in the great affliction that is upon them: Jo McCarroll, A. H. Clark, Hunter Wood.

Whereupon the committee submitted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS: The members of this bar have learned with the deepest sorrow that death has again invaded their ranks and chosen from among them the Honorable John Feland, one of their wisest, most honored and ablest members;

WHEREAS: The members of this bar would give expression to the esteem and admiration in which their late distinguished co-laborer was held and to the sentiments of grief and sympathy with which they are moved; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That in the death of Judge Feland a member, whose character and erudition lent lustre and honor; whose career at the bar covering a period of more than forty years was well calculated to exalt the noble profession of the law; and whose life was given to every movement for the promotion of his city's welfare and the welfare of society.

RESOLVED, That this bar extends to the family of the deceased its great bereavement its profoundest sympathy, assuring them that the virtues of the husband, father and friend who so ably beamed in the memory of his associates.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that the chairman of this meeting be instructed to present a copy of these resolutions in open court at the next term of the Christian Circuit Court to be spread upon the minutes.

Committee on Resolutions: Jo McCarroll, A. H. Clark, Hunter Wood.

On motion the above resolutions were unanimously adopted and the following members of the bar were appointed pallbearers:

ACTIVE. HODGKINS. O. H. Anderson, R. T. Petree, Hunter Wood, W. E. Warfield, Jr., Jo McCarroll, J. T. Hanberry, C. H. Bush, W. R. Howell, John Phelps, W. T. Fowler, S. B. Bristall, Frank Rives, Polk Canaler, F. L. Wilkerson, O. G. Prowse, Walter Hale.

On motion the meeting then adjourned.

J. I. LANDES, Chairman.

FRANK RIVES, Sec'y.

Republicans of Hopkins County.

This is the year for us to put aside all past differences if any exist and unite as one man in order that we may be enabled to work in harmony as becomes us, for we will be called upon in this good year to place in the field a set of men to represent the principles of our grand old party from governor to representative. Party strife and factions must cease if we expect to make our influence felt. With the preponderance of political feeling largely in our favor incident to the wise, conservative and patriotic administration of Wm. McKinley and the judicious administration of affairs by Governor Bradley, we should enter the campaign this fall with the supreme confidence that the people are with us as against the promoters of Goebelism and the remnant that is left of the once proud Democratic party and lay it in the shade never to be resurrected as long as it remains only a party of opposition and for the disfranchisement of voters by legalized method such as the Goebel bill.

Let the past be forgotten and look to the future and be guided by higher motives than self-interest, and then we will be a power for good, felt and recognized throughout the State. Will we do it? This is the question that confronts us at the opportune moment and the one for us to address ourselves to in this morning of the new year.

Sectionalism is buried. The glorious stars and stripes, the emblem of liberty, floats grandly and serenely over a re-united and happy and prosperous people and the "enemy's country" is no where in sight. SCOTTS' EMULSION and progress is now our motto, and let us prove ourselves competent and worthy to meet the great responsibilities intrusted to our care and keeping and if we will do this future generations will rise up and call us blessed. Not only this but McKinley will be called again to preside over the destinies of this country for another four years, and grand old Kentucky will swing again into the Republican columns and Hopkins will swing from her mooring and a Republican will represent her in the lower branch of the General Assembly and the legislature will be Republican on a joint ballot, thus insuring a Republican successor to Senator Lindsey and we will all be happy. These are my sentiments and I trust they will find a responsive chord in the hearts of all our fellow-citizens.

Respectfully, BEN T. ROBINSON.

DOWN IN THE MINES.

A Burning Shame.

A month ago you put it in. A ton, so full of fat. But now no coal is in there. This is the shame that coal has been there.

—L. A. W. Bulletin.

Weigher Fegan says the shipment of coke last week amounted to about ten cars per day. One train of twenty-one cars was sent out in one day.

Secretary Hall, of Oakhill mine, says that while they are constantly increasing their production, they are yet unable to supply but a small part of their orders for coke from the mine.

News from Jellico says the track of the Proctor Coal Company's railroad was flooded on Saturday by heavy rains so that their engine was unable to haul cars to and from the mine.

A company has been organized to dig for gold in the mountainous hills about Dillsboro, Ind. They control about 400 acres of land and announce that an expert miner has been employed to take charge of the work.

About sixty cars of coal were brought in on one train from Reinecke, Monarch and mines north of here yesterday last week, which shows that prosperity has struck them as well as all other mines in this county.

Thomas Longstaff says some delay was caused at Harpers by a cave-in of an entry, but hard work, under his supervision, soon cleared the large amount of slate and dirt out of the way.

The miners at Carlisle, Ill., claim that they have been defeated by the weighman using false weights for years, but they were only able to discover it lately and it is so all lovers of right and justice hope the guilty parties may suffer.

Reports say the agitators lately spent some time at Madisonville, but received little if any encouragement in their work of organizing. The wise Kentucky miner sees no benefit to be derived from taking their advice and continues to dig coal rather than meet and resolute on peace.

Foreman Thos. Robinson, of the Empire mines, says the demand for their coal for steam purposes, has of late grown to be very heavy and he says his company is now talking seriously of making another opening to increase their production. Improvement in track facilities are being made in that order that they may load more coal.

The State Mine Inspector, of Indiana, is evidently a strong friend of the miner of that State, but he fear his friendship for them is leading him too far, and he might say astray. Among the many reforms he suggests to the legislature, is one giving him the right, when he finds a mine operator, who does not strictly fulfill the requirements of the law is to empower him to at once bring suit, without giving the operator a chance to remedy the evil.

Said a leading coal operator a few days ago: "It is true we are shipping an immense amount of coal, but at the present demoralized condition of prices there is little profit made." When the demand for grain is great, our farmers generally reap the benefit from advanced prices, and why can't our coal producers fare likewise? Good prices for coal in Kentucky means good wages to miners, so why not an increase when the demand justifies it, and the prices are too low?

The St. Bernard Coal Company, after having made every effort in their power to supply the demand for coal from their mines under operation, and failing to do so, decided, some weeks ago to re-open what is known as the Arnold mine, and which was closed down by them about twenty years ago. A large force of men, under Foreman Rule, has been placed there, and are making rapid progress toward getting the mine in good shape. The condition of the mine is said to have been found surprisingly good, when the length of time it was idle is taken into consideration. Much of the timbers used as braces for the track purposes have been found sound enough for present use, and but little of the roof was found caved in. The air pipes have been laid to the new mine, mining machines at work and the railroad track to the mine is about completed so that coal can be loaded there for shipment.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS.

The Southern Railway has restored the work of its employees to the figures of 1893.

The wages of the passenger conductors on the Texas & Pacific have been increased from $100 to $125 a month.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie has issued an order decreasing the weight of trains to be hauled during the cold weather by 500 tons for the larger engines and 200 tons for the smaller.

The Columbus Dispatch says: On the Louisville division of the Pan Handle there are engines in service which were built forty years ago, which with a light train will make as high speed as any of the modern-built engines.

The Southern Railway has begun work on a tunnel through Lookout Mountain for the extension of the Memphis & Charleston division to Stevenson, Ala. The estimated cost is $500,000, and it will take two years to finish the work.

The present time card and schedule has caused some passengers at Henderson who won't listen to the warning of the agent or trainmen, to get mixed up on trains. Instead, of the Louisville train leaving there first, as on the former schedule, it now leaves there ten minutes later than the "Express" and L. & N. passengers are often found on it.

Rev. Fowler, who was formerly pastor of Madisonville Christian Church, recently married a couple on the train while it stopped at Bowling Green.

The lack of motive power last week caused some trouble in the transportation department on the Henderson division but this week the freight is being handled promptly.

A new railroad said to be about two hundred miles in length will be built into Nashville this year.

Never since the L. & N. has controlled the Henderson division, has there been so many new side tracks laid in one winter as has been this season.

It is said that since the adoption of safety couplings and air brakes accidents have decreased fifty per cent. In the end the law compelling such improvements will prove beneficial to both employee and company.

Operator Pawcut was off duty a few days last week on account of sickness.

A serious wreck occurred on the Lehigh

Ask Dinnie Price to tell you what that girl whispered in his ear, and see if he will.

Misses Sasia and Nannie Barnes and Maggie Oates and Messrs. Hanson Barnes and Edward Ray, of Nortonville, attended the party at the residence of M. S. McIntosh.

Master Curt McIntosh fell from a running wagon, Friday, and was badly bruised. Fortunately no bones were broken.

Mrs. Bettie McIntosh spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Mary Barnes, near Nortonville. She was accompanied home by her sister, who spent the latter part of the week with her.

News was received here a few days ago that the gas factory at Nortonville was going to be removed to Louisville in a short time, and it was supposed Clinker would probably go with it, for he belongs to everything that you call gas at old Nortonville. You won't be so far away, but that you can send your letters back to The Bee. We all enjoy reading your notes. Be careful when working about the gas factory that you don't get sent straight up again.

Dr. Oates is visiting the family of J. E. Oldham at this writing.

Glad to know Sweetheart is keeping account of Busby's bounds. How often we hear Sweetheart counted Busby's bounds? We wonder if she is sure she made no mistakes in counting them. We lack several of having that unlucky number seven. Wonder how many bounds Sweetheart has, or does she forget to count them?

York McIntosh is very ill at this writing. There will be a grand party in this section soon.

SOLE SURVIVOR

Of the Morgan Escape is Capt. L. D. Hockersmith.

Appropos of the revival of interest in the famous escape of Morgan and his raiders from the Columbus penitentiary caused by the recent discovery of a passage through the tunnel through which the prisoners passed out to freedom is the only survivor of the seven Confederates who escaped. He is Capt. L. D. Hockersmith, who is now living quietly at Madisonville, Ky., says the Louisville Times. Gen. Basil W. Duke, who was confined in Columbus prison and who worked on the tunnel, is authority for the statement. It has been a popular error that Gen. Duke was in the party. Gen. Duke stated to a Times reporter that the seven men who made their escapes were Gen. John H. Morgan, Captain, afterward Judge, Thos. H. Hines, Capt. Ralph Shelton, Capt. Samuel Taylor, Capt. Gus McGhee, Capt. Jacob Bennett and Capt. L. D. Hockersmith. It will be observed that all of these except Gen. Morgan were captives.

Gen. Duke does not believe that there was ever any mystery about the tunnel. He says that after the escape had been discovered, people flocked in to see the exit. He deprecates the story of connivance with prison officials.

New Hotel Earlinton.
The new Hotel Earlinton is now in full sway. Mr. and Mrs. Jno. M. Victory, whose ability to accomplish what they desire in the new enterprise is unquestioned, are bending every energy to make the house comfortable, homelike and popular.

The hotel is properly Mrs. Victory's domain but Mr. Victory is incidentally giving certain details his personal attention in order to help get things moving smoothly and well. The house is newly furnished and fitted throughout, lighted by electricity and has baths with hot and cold water for guests. The culinary department may be expected to produce all that is to be desired. All trains are met, night and day.

Wonderful Discovery.
LUNSFORD, Ala., April 15, 1898. New Spencer Medicine Co.
Dear Sir:—I have been troubled with liver and stomach complaint. I had no appetite and my general health was very bad. I took medicine from four different doctors and they failed to do me any good. I got no relief until I began to use your valuable Nubian Tea. I used about two dollars worth of it, and it did me more good than all the medicine I ever took. I have gained thirty-five pounds in weight and my health is very good. I can sleep soundly and my appetite is excellent. I can recommend your Nubian Tea to the world as being a God-send to any community. Any one who doubts this statement can write to me. OSEAR BAKER, Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

Work Delayed.
Work at the new opening of the old Arnold mine has been somewhat delayed during the past week by the severe weather that has prevailed. The inside work has gone on without interruption and coal was put out ready for loading at the time expected, but the laying of the siding has been interfered with considerably, notwithstanding the very energetic pushing of Supervisor James Sullivan, of the L. & N. Railroad. Material that was sent from Louisville to Mr. Sullivan for use in making the siding has been delayed, and he was forced to rob his sections along the line, a little here and a little there, in order to get what was necessary. But he had an eye to such an emergency and was not prevented from going ahead with the work on this account. Foreman Corey, of the St. Bernard outside force, has been pushing things through storm and rain without delay, and much hard work has been accomplished.

With the push that has been employed by all hands in developing this new mine, everything will be in first-class shape in a short while to furnish coal to the freezing and help alleviate the great scarcity of that good article that has prevailed in many markets this season.

Good for the Children.
Mrs. Ella Hinson, of Hinton, Ala., writes us August 12th, 1898: "I advise all mothers to give their children Planter's Nubian Tea when they are puny or fretful. I keep this medicine in the house and when the children are ailing I give them a dose and that is the last of it." Sold by St. Bernard Drug Store.

The Magazine Club.
Last Thursday afternoon at the home of the Misses Crenshaw the Club was delightfully entertained. Fortunately, there was a large number in attendance to enjoy the pleasant occasion. Mrs. E. A. Chatten and Mrs. Kemp led the Review of Reviews and Munsie's. Both articles were quite interesting and much enjoyed. Then came the current events, truly one of the most attractive features of the meetings, always fresh and new. After partaking of light refreshments, the Club adjourned to meet with Mrs. P. M. Moore; Mrs. Ernest Rash and Miss Lucile Crenshaw leading, and Mrs. Geo. C. Atkinson will read, on Thursday, January 19th.

Having a Great Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of a gripe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heat up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by St. Bernard Drugstore, Earlinton; B. F. Robinson, Mortons Gap; Geo. King, St. Charles.

A Pleasant Surprise.
A surprise entertainment given at the St. Bernard Parochial School on Wednesday night of last week was enjoyed fully by those whose privilege it was to attend. The guests were invited and a pleasant air of mystery about what was to be preserved. One of the late improved talking machines, with a miscellaneous selection of attractive songs, etc., was operated for the entertainment of the guests.

A Fine Piece of Color Work.
An experienced art critic gives as his opinion that there will be no handsome piece of color work issued this year than Hood's Sarsaparilla Calendar for 1899. It is not only useful but artistic and beautiful and up to date. The charming "American Girl" whose beautiful face appears with a delicately painted face in the background, makes a pleasing feature which anyone will be pleased to have before him the whole of 1899. We suppose druggists will have this Calendar, or a copy may be obtained by sending 6 cents to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

The farmers of Missouri have organized improved roads committees in every county in the State.

Digest Your Food.
Ninety per cent. of all sickness is caused by food not being properly digested, it creates poisons and goes into your blood and then you are liable to almost any disease the human system is heir to. Use Dr. Carls' German Liver Powder and watch the results. You will feel the good effects after taking one dose. Give it a trial and be convinced. Price 25c. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store.

Representative Wheeler is after appropriations to improve the Paducah harbor, which is one of the most important on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

Working Night and Day.
The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box at St. Bernard Drugstore.

Road-building by county-jail inmates is to be undertaken in Oneida county, New York. This is following the example in Warren and St. Lawrence counties, where the plan is successful operation, even at a distance of six or eight miles from the jail.

Coughed 25 Years.
I suffered for 25 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. This remedy makes weak lungs strong. It has saved my life.—J. B. Rosell, Grantsburg, Ill.

Narrow ties and mud roads should speedily be sent, hand in hand, as it were, "glimmering through the dream of things that were."

New Drug Firm.
Messrs. Campbell & Co. have succeeded Dr. N. G. Mothershead & Son in the proprietorship of the Railroad Street drugstore. The firm is composed of Mr. William Campbell, of Rander, Ky., and Mr. A. E. Mercer, of Paducah. Mr. Campbell is the druggist and has active management of the business. Mr. Mercer is brother-in-law to Mr. Campbell, having married his sister, and is one of the best engineers on the Louisville division of the L. C. Railroad, running a fast freight between Paducah and Central City. It was his father who opened the old Mercer mines on that road. The Bee welcomes these gentlemen to Earlinton and wishes them success. Dr. Mothershead retires from the drug business and will devote himself entirely to the practice of his profession.

Millions Given Away.
It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Law for Consumption, Coughs and Colds have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases: Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on St. Bernard Druggist and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

At His Old Home.
The Pontypool Free Press, published at Pontypool, Monmouthshire, England, has reproduced from The Bee the notice of the death of Mr. Edwin Phillips, his biography and the various other notices that were given in The Bee relative to Mr. Phillips and his family. The notice was published near the birth place of Mr. Phillips and the publication thereof of all the information available concerning his life, his death and the surviving members of his family indicates in what esteem he was held at his place of nativity.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the Union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by St. Bernard Druggist, Earlinton; B. T. Robinson, Mortons Gap; Geo. King, St. Charles.

From the Sumpter (S. C.) Watchman.
The tobacco planters are wearing smiles this fall. The cotton planters find difficulty in obtaining clothes to wear.

Brave Ten Fall.
Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles, as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poison in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50c at St. Bernard Druggist. Every bottle guaranteed.

They Know It.
From the Knoxville (Tenn.) Journal.
The American farmers with full barns and granaries, farmers who have bank accounts and canceled mortgages, they know that; the country is vastly more prosperous than it was five years ago. The workingman who wants to work and is at work and being paid wages knows it. The manufacturers who have orders for their products for weeks in advance of production know it. The merchants whose sales are much larger now than in previous years know it and the reports from the clearing houses show that the bankers know it.

There are destitute people, yes, there always have been and always will be. Nobody expects a prosperity that will relieve all destitution everywhere. And when the fact that five thousand people are fed in a city of more than a million is cited as evidence that the country is not prosperous, it is the result either of thoughtlessness or of insincerity.

ARTICLE, Miss. July 1st, 1898.
New Spencer Medicine Co.
I want to tell you what I think of your Nubian Tea. I have used it myself and in my family, and it is all that you claim for it. It is a great medicine, ever tried. It is just the thing to take if you feel bad and are bilious.

Bird's Quone Nesting Place.
Hugh Monroe, who for more than seventy-five years traveled the prairies of the Northwest, said that once he had found a bird's nest in the thick hair between the horns of a buffalo bull that he had killed. He had two Indians with him and had killed the young bull which the Indians were beginning to skin and cut up, and while they were doing this he plucked some of the long hair from the forehead to use in wiping out his gun. As he reached down and grasped the hair a little bird—a little gray bird—flew out from under his hand and away. Parting the hair to see whence it had come, he found a round, smooth nest, containing four little young birds. He could not tell what kind of a bird it was.

Consumption Cured.
Dr. Otto's Spruce Gum Balsam will cure any case of consumption if taken in time. Consumption starts with a slight cough or cold. This where consumption gets its start and if you will use Dr. Otto's Spruce Gum Balsam, you will cure the cough, heal the lungs and throat, and avoid the most dreaded of all diseases, consumption. Delay in attending to a slight cough may cost you your life. Large size bottles, Price 25c. and 50c. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store.

The Corpse Walked Away.
Macon, Mo., Jan. 7.—A stanger, apparently frozen stiff and killed by a fall from his horse, was picked up in the roadway. He was brought to the city and taken to an undertaking establishment, where the supposedly dead man was placed in a coffin. An inquest was to be held, but all calculations were rudely upset when the undertaker went to remove the corpse. It was gone. In its stead was this note:

"Don't like your old lodging-house a little bit; your beds are too cramped and your niggers don't keep no fire. Sorry to leave you."

I want to let the people who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved me after a number of other medicines and a doctor had failed. It is the best liniment I have ever known of.—J. A. DODSON, Alpha Theta K. A. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain. For sale by St. Bernard Druggist, Earlinton; B. T. Robinson, Mortons Gap; Geo. King, St. Charles.

Gov. MacCorkle's Endorsement.

Hon. W. A. MacCorkle, Ex-Gov. of West Virginia, adds his name to the long list of Statesmen benefited by Peruna—He heartily recommends Peruna as a cathartic remedy and tonic.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 9, 1898.
Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.
GENTLEMEN:—Your Peruna, as a tonic, is certainly unexcelled, and a number of cases that have come under my observation where it has been used for catarrh, or any disease which has its origin in that malady, it has been of great benefit. Peruna has my hearty recommendation, both as a tonic and cathartic remedy.

W. A. MACCORKLE, Ex-Gov. of West Virginia.

The Laugh is on Them.
One thing which is moving Protectionists to mirth just now is the spectacle of two or three of the fiercest Free-Trade newspapers in Massachusetts setting forth unanswerable demonstrations that the foreign commerce of Great Britain is and long has been at a standstill, and that the scepter of mercantile supremacy is swiftly passing over to the United States. This is a monumental truth which has been proclaimed in the Boston "Journal's" editorial columns time and time again for these half dozen years—and it never failed to turn these same Free-Trade newspapers purple in the face with fury. They have published reams of "copy," endeavoring to refute exactly what they now assert as an original discovery in their new-born zeal against "imperialism."

It strikes us that the "Journal" rather has the laugh on its headlong contemporaries.—Boston "Journal."

Lung Irritation is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey will cure it, and give such strength to the lungs that a cough or a cold will not settle there. Twenty-five cents at all good druggists.

Literary Note.
A very curious presentation of the number of Irishmen, of the stamp of Wolfe in England, the Duke of Teutau in Spain, General O'Rourke in Russia, Viscount Taaffe in Hungary, who are leaders in many nations, is given in the January Cosmopolitan under the title, "Irish Leaders in Many Nations." It will be found interesting to all who have even a drop of Irish blood in their veins. "The Jews in Jerusalem" is another article in the same number possessing interest for a large class.

Will Preach at Mortons Gap.
Elder I. H. Teel, of the Christian Church, has accepted a call to preach to Mortons Gap congregation this year. He will resign his work at Wallonia, Trigg county, notwithstanding it is understood that congregation is unanimous in desiring him to continue, and accept the work at the Gap, which seems more in his field. The date of the first service on the new work is not yet fixed, but when the work is begun the regular preaching appointments will be on the third Sunday in each month.

Elder I. H. Teel has accepted a pressing invitation to visit Trigg county and participate in a fight for prohibition which will terminate in an election in that county on January 28th. Great confidence is felt that prohibition will carry by a large majority, especially in the city of Cadiz. Bro. Teel goes Saturday and will return about Tuesday unless detained longer by the pressure of the fight. He is a strong speaker and his influence is a power in work like this. Then too he now hails from the best town in Kentucky—a standing and unrefuted argument for the virtues and possibilities of local prohibition, with public sentiment and conscientious officials and people behind the law.

Dr. William Kates, of Muncie, Ind., who has attained considerable renown from small inventions, has just completed a device, and has secured a patent upon it, by which a regular day railroad passenger coach may be transformed into a sleeper and the reverse. On pressing invitation from the Pullman Company, the doctor has gone to Chicago. There the thing will be thoroughly tested. From Chicago he will go to New York city, where the Wagner Company also desires to look into the new device. In addition to the above two companies, the Big Four railroad has solicited him to sell out his patent to them. The inventor of what promises to be a most valuable thing will give no answer to any solicitation. In the patent the device is called "A day and sleeping passenger car."

NOTHING LIKE LEATHER.

Most Shoes are made of leather, but that is the only thing about them that is alike. The designing, cutting, fitting, sewing, soling, must all come in before the shoe is a shoe, and it depends upon how these are done, whether the shoe is as good as it should be or not. The firm of PINGREE & SMITH says:

"There's nothing like Leather, If it's well put together."

Our earnest effort for about twenty long years has been to sell shoes made of good leather, well put together. Most of our shoes come direct from the manufacturer to us. We buy from shoe makers who understand their business, and stand behind their work, enabling us to see to it that you "get your money's worth" when you buy your shoes of us.
